

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

The Oldest American Stock Insurance Company

AT THE BEGINNING OF AMERICAN BELLIGERENCY

in the World War for the safety of Democracy, The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company finds itself in a distinctly secure position.

Its assets are diversified and of the highest character. The Company is financed in such a way as to enable it to meet all of its obligations. It has an adequate cash balance, collateral loans subject to call and bonds and mortgages of the highest grade. Moreover, it subscribed for $3,000,000 of the

U. S. GOVERNMENT 1917 LIBERTY LOAN,

(although the full amount was not allotted.)

The Mutual Benefit's Contingency Reserve funds are of such a character that the Company is in a position to offer to the American public a demonstrably secure, reasonable and necessary form of protection. Moreover, under a Mutual Benefit policy, by taking advantage of any one of the valuable settlement options, the insured can safeguard the future interests of his beneficiaries who may not be versed in financial matters. Mutual Benefit salesmen, even in war time, through Service Methods, are doing a wonderful business and building up invaluable clientele relationships with policyholders.

"More Business Than Usual" is our 1917 slogan.

Send for Leaflet "Security."

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT

For forty-four years THE INSURANCE YEAR BOOK has appeared annually, growing steadily with the expansion of the insurance business, and adding new features to its mass of information as the conditions demanded. The publishers therefore take pride in presenting the forty-fifth annual edition, and in acknowledging the widespread recognition that has been accorded this publication, both in this country and abroad.

The 1917 edition of the YEAR BOOK is issued in two volumes, as heretofore, one being devoted to LIFE, CASUALTY and MISCELLANEOUS INSURANCE, and the other to FIRE and MARINE INSURANCE. Each volume contains the standard statistics regarding companies and their transactions that are necessary to perfect their history from year to year. These statistics are brought forward to include their transactions to December 31, 1916. Some of the principal features of this volume are briefly summarized as follows:

LIFE AND MICELLANEOUS VOLUME

This volume covers statistics and information concerning legal reserve life insurance companies, assessment life associations, fraternal orders, stock and mutual casualty companies, assesment accident and sick benefit companies, and a large amount of data covering foreign companies and business in foreign countries. A special section is devoted to Canadian organizations and business.

The tremendous volume of business reported by life and miscellaneous insurance organizations of the United States is slightly indicated by the following totals:

The Directory of Insurance Agents (with supplemental lists of Insurance Attorneys and Medical Examiners), occupies about 276 pages, 4 columns to the page, and comprises about 63,000 names, being the most comprehensive list of its kind extant.

In addition to the foregoing, there is a considerable amount of other useful information presented regarding various features of the insurance business, each adding its quota to the value of this volume, which, aside from advertising matter, contains 1,300 pages. The Fire and Marine volume is similarly comprehensive in covering its peculiar field.

Our thanks are due to the heads of Insurance Departments of the various States and to officers of companies for their courtesy and promptness in furnishing us with desired information.

Yes, this is the Home Life Insurance Company.

I am Mr. H——. Do you remember me? You are not the gentleman who represented the Company as an agent twenty years ago?

No,—I am his son and have always had the highest opinion of the Company and its management. The firm of which I am a member has decided to apply for a partnership policy of $150,000 in three policies of $50,000 each. Can you send an agent to arrange the matter? By the way, I noticed the announcement last year of the mutualization of the Company. That's fine, as it removes the possibility of any exploitation to the detriment of the policyholders' interests.

WHAT LIFE INSURANCE IS

AND

WHAT IT DOES

A PRIMER FOR LAYMEN AND STUDENTS

An elementary text book on Life Insurance bearing the above title has been written by William Alexander, of New York, at the suggestion of the National Association of Life Underwriters, and published under the auspices of that body, with the name of THE SPECTATOR COMPANY, Insurance Publishers, on the title page.

This book is not designed exclusively for agents, but it will be of the highest value to insurance salesmen, because it explains in the clearest and simplest manner all the elementary truths about life insurance with which the agent should be familiar.

It then describes the life insurance company and the manner in which its business is conducted, and next analyzes the policy forms.

The rest of the book deals with the following topics:

Fraternal and Assessment Insurance.
Annuities.
The Development and Scope of Life Insurance.
Popular Fallacies.
How to Select a Company.
Definitions and Explanations of Technical Words and Phrases.
How Premium Rates are Determined.

At the end there is a supplementary chapter of practical advice to the insurance salesman.

Although the book is not addressed to the agent, all the arguments which induce men to insure are embodied in it, and the arguments that induce men to insure are the arguments that enable insurance men to sell.

The price is $1.50. Now ready for delivery.

Wholesale rates for fifty or more copies will be quoted on application.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS

SYNOPSIS OF THE STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS OF THE SEVERAL STATES AND TERRITORIES AS THEY APPLY TO LEGAL RESERVE, OLD LINE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES OF OTHER STATES

In the following pages will be found concise statements of the statutory requirements for the admission of life insurance companies to do business in the respective States. In this brief form, the synopses are intended more as a hint than an actual guide, for it is not anticipated that any company in entering a State would be satisfied with anything less than the statutes themselves as their reliance as to conditions. Our summary, however, may be accepted as correct as far as it goes.

It has been our aim in preparing these synopses of the statutes to secure uniformity for all the States and to give the essential requirements in as brief a space as possible consistent with the statement of the facts. The synopsis for each State was sent to the supervising officer of such State and returned to us with his approval to date, or with such corrections as he deemed essential. We believe that the information given in this condensed form is as correct as it is possible to make it and will be sufficient to indicate to all interested the statutory requirements of the several States and Territories.

ASSESSMENT ASSOCIATIONS AND FRATERNAL ORDERS

The following brief synopses of the laws of the different States regarding the admission of assessment associations and fraternal orders will indicate the special requirements. For names of supervising officers see list of State officials.

ALABAMA.

The law of Alabama distinguishes between mutual aid associations and assessment life associations. Mutual aid, benefit and industrial companies or associations are defined as those issuing insurance against contingencies such as the birth or death of a child, upon marriage, death, sickness, or physical disability. The association's charter, together with the constitution, by-laws and certificate of membership or policy, must be submitted to the Insurance Commissioner; a membership of 500 bona fide members must be maintained, and from $1000 to $5000, according to amount of policy, weekly benefit or death indemnity, paid in as a benefit fund. Said fund may be in cash or satisfactory securities deposited with the Department. Annual reports to be filed by March 1. Tax, one per cent on net premiums and a license fee of $20; Alabama companies are allowed to set off against said licenses and taxes such amounts as may be paid as tax upon property of such company. The Insurance Commissioner shall act as attorney for service. The Insurance Commissioner has supervision of mutual aid and assessment life associations. Assessment companies must have 100 members and $250,000 insurance in force to procure a charter. A deposit of $5000 with the State is required upon receipt of charter, and $1000 thereafter for each million at risk up to $100,000. No policyholder can be held liable for losses or liabilities of an association by reason of his being a member thereof. Assessment companies of other States must have on deposit in the State where it was incorporated at least $100,000 for the benefit of all the policyholders. Annual statements must be filed on or before March 1, showing the condition of the company on December 31 preceding, and its transactions for the year. Fee, $101. The amount of every contingency insured against must be specifically stated in the policy.

Fraternal Orders.—The requirements of fraternal orders are embodied in an act which is, without amendment, the Uniform Fraternal bill agreed upon by the national fraternal organizations and the convention of Insurance Commissioners. This act defines fraternal benefit societies and their form of government, provides what form of certificates shall be issued, how and where funds may be invested, requires annual statements, and gives the Commissioner power to examine into the affairs of any society at his discretion. The legal minimum standard of valuation of certificates is fixed as the National Fraternal Congress mortality table, with interest assumption of not more than four per cent.

ARIZONA.

No life insurance company or association, other than fraternal beneficiary associations which issued contracts, the performance of which is contingent upon the payment of assessments or calls upon its members, shall do business within this State, except such companies or associations as now are licensed to do business within this State, and which shall value their assessment policies or certificates of membership as yearly renewable term contracts according to the standard of valuation of life insurance policies prescribed by the laws of this State. Every such company or association must have assets of at least $200,000 invested in securities such as are approved by this act, and must have paid in full all legal death claims for the last twelve months. Every such company or association shall, on or before February 15 of each year, file with the Corporation Commission a statement, upon a form to be prescribed and furnished by the Corporation Commission, showing the true condition of the company or association, as of December 31 next preceding, and shall pay a premium tax as otherwise provided in this act.

ARKANSAS.

Arkansas has no special laws relating to assessment associations, but every insurance company without capital, seeking to do business in the State, is required to execute a bond in the sum of $20,000 for the protection of policyholders, to be approved and filed with the Auditor of State. Fraternal orders file a bond of $10,000. New York Conference Bill regulating fraternal beneficiary sections passed by General Assembly of 1917, now in effect.

CALIFORNIA.

Fraternal orders are regulated by the Uniform Fraternal law, for the provisions of which see Alabama, with slight change.

CONNECTICUT.

Preliminary Documents.—Association must deposit with the Commissioner a certified copy of its charter and copy of its statement showing its business transactions for the year ending December 31 preceding; a certificate that it has paid and has the ability to pay its certificates or policies to the full limits named therein; that it does not issue such certificates upon lives of persons more than sixty-five years of age; that its certificates are payable only to the beneficiaries who have an insurable interest in the life of the insured; that an ordinary assessment upon its members is sufficient to pay its maximum certificate of membership, issued to residents of this State. The provisions of this section shall apply to fraternal beneficiary associations doing exclusively an accident insurance business, and upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter (82) and the provisions of Chapter 8 of Title 9 of the code, so far as the same are applicable, such associations may be authorized to transact business. Further organization or admission prohibited. Chap. 18-34 G. A.

Section 1798-a was amended in 1917 by adding thereto the following: Provided, however, that the Insurance Commissioner of this State may authorize any health or accident insurance company or association organized under the laws of any other State or Territory, to do business in this State, if, under the laws of such State or Territory health and accident insurance companies or associations organized under the laws of this State are permitted to do business in such State.

Such association shall not employ paid agents in soliciting or procuring members, except in the organization or building up of subordinate bodies or granting members inducements to procure new members. Examinations may be made not less frequently than once in two years. Before any such association can be authorized, copy of by-laws, rules, articles of incorporation and plan of business must be submitted to Commissioner of Insurance and Attorney-General. Societies operating upon National Fraternal Congress rates of mortality must have policies valued. Chap. 18-34 G. A. Section 1839-j of the Code requires that certificates issued on the basis of the N. F. C. Table and four per cent interest (or higher standard), shall be valued in the same manner as policies of level premium life insurance. This valuation is to determine the reserve liability. Section 1839-l requires that all accumulations of domestic fraternals, "held in trust for the purpose of fulfillment" of certificates, shall be invested in certain specified securities which shall be deposited with the Commissioner of Insurance. WEST VIRGINIA.

Assessment life associations are deemed corporations for the mutual protection and relief of their members and are brought under the life insurance laws.

Preliminary Documents.—Association must obtain a certificate of authority from the State Auditor, and appoint the Auditor its attorney in fact, and may in addition appoint any person residing in this State as such attorney to accept service of legal process; must also file statement showing the condition of the asociation; also a certificate of the proper officer of its home State, showing that it is duly incorporated and authorized to transact business, and also that it has paid and is able to pay its certificates in full, and that it contracts to pay benefits for no other causes than the death of a member or policyholder, or at the end of a stipulated period of years during the life of the member or policyholder, or his injury by external violent causes, or disability by sickness or disease.

Annual Statements.—Annual statements must be filed with the Auditor on or before March 1, showing the condition of the association December 31 preceding.

Fees.—For issuing certificate of authority, $25; for each statement filed, $10; agent's certificate, $5.

Fraternal Orders.—Association of this class must file copy of charter and certified copy of constitution and laws, rules and regulations, all proposed forms of benefit certificates, applications therefor, and literature to be issued by such association and a bond in the sum of $5000 (this applies only to an association being organized in West Virginia) shall be filed with the Insurance Commissioner. The association is given a preliminary certificate of authority to solicit members. Said association shall collect from each applicant the amount of not less than one death benefit assessment or payment, and shall issue to each such applicant a receipt for the amount so collected. But no such association shall incur any liability other than for such advance payments, nor issue any benefit certificate, nor pay or allow, to any person any death or disability benefit until actual bona fide applications for death benefit certificates have been secured upon at least two hundred lives for at least $1000 each nor until there shall be established ten subordinate lodges or branches into which said two hundred applicants have been initiated nor until there has been submitted to the Insurance Commissioner a list of such applicants, giving their names, addresses, etc., Advanced payments shall, during the period of organization, be held in trust for and, if the organization is not completed within one year, returned to said applicants. All certificates of authority provided for in this section shall be renewed annually on the first day of March. Fee for certificate of authority, $25. No domestic association shall transfer its membership or funds to any association not authorized by the Insurance Commissioner to transact business in this State; nor shall any such association transfer its membership or funds to any licensed association, unless the said contract to transfer has been approved by a two-thirds vote of the members of the supreme body of the association whose membership is proposed to be transferred; and by a two-thirds vote of the trustees or board having charge of the association proposing to take such membership.

Sec. 27.—No foreign association shall transact any business in this State without a license, and before receiving such license it shall file with the Insurance Commissioner a duly certified copy of its charter or articles of association; a copy of its constitution and laws, certified by its secretary or corresponding officer; a power of attorney as hereinafter provided; a statement under oath of its president and secretary, or corresponding officers, in the form required by the Insurance Commissioner and duly verified by an examination made by the supervising insurance official of its home State, of the business for the preceding year; a copy of its contract. For each license or renewal thereof the Insurance Commissioner shall receive a fee of $25 and $10 for filing annual statement.

WISCONSIN.

ASSESSMENT LIFE COMPANIES.

No life insurance company or association other than fraternal beneficiary associations, operated on the assessment plan, shall do business in this State, except such as are now authorized and which value their assessment certificates as yearly renewable term policies according to the standard valuation of life insurance policies prescribed by the laws of this State.

Asessment life companies collecting premiums in excess of the net one-year term premium must credit members with premium paid less policyholders' share of losses and expenses, and carry value to credit of the individual member, and apply value upon lapse as single premium to purchase extended insurance, and hold assets for all such values and furnish statement of credit to any policyholder upon request.

Assessment accident associations shall, before being licensed, deposit with the State Treasurer $1000, or, in the case of a foreign association, have such sum on deposit with the proper official of its home State.

No organization furnishing life or casualty insurance upon the mutual or assessment plan, organized under the laws of any State or Territory, District of Columbia or any foreign country, shall transact any business in this State until it has filed with the Commissioner of Insurance a copy of its articles of incorporation, constitution and by-laws; application for membership; certificate of membership, literature, etc.; certificate of authority of its home State; appoint the Commissioner of Insurance attorney for service.

MUTUAL BENEFIT SOCIETIES.

No fraternal or beneficiary corporation, society, order or association for the relief of members or beneficiaries or making life or casualty insurance or indemnity upon the mutual or assessment plan shall be incorporated in Wisconsin until 500 persons have applied for insurance. And in case of life insurance, each shall have been examined and have deposited one year's premium, out of which there shall be pledged a sum sufficient to pay the largest possible death claim. Rates must equal the N. F. C. table with four per cent interest, with full reserves and assets held to meet the reserve liability.

No fraternal benefit society not licensed in the State on July 12, 1907, can be admitted unless complying with the foregoing requirements as to all its business, except that societies having members in the State on May 1, 1911, may be permitted to transact business with such members alone, or may be permitted to transact business with new members by providing for the legal separation of assets representing the reserves of such new members as a trust fund for the benefit of such new members only.

All fraternal societies in the State must report valuation at the end of each year beginning with December 31, 1912, which valuation is not test of solvency but must be placed before the members each year beginning with the year 1914.

Fraternal benefit societies pay a fee of $25 for filing annual report, and pay for certified copies, and pay no other fees.

License expires March 31.

WYOMING.

Preliminary Documents.—Association must secure authority to do business from the Insurance Commissioner, and must file with him a certified copy of its charter, a copy of its statement for the preceding year, and a verified certificate that an ordinary assessment upon its members is sufficient to pay its maximum certificate of membership to the full limit named therein; also copies of its certificate of membership, application and by-laws, and must designate the Auditor of State to accept service of legal process. A certificate must be filed accepting the State constitution.

Annual Statements.—Annual statements must be filed on or before April 1, showing the condition of the association December 31 preceding.

Fees.—Payable in advance. For issuing license, $50; filing annual statements, $25; certificate accepting State constitution, $2.50; agents' license, $2; copies of papers on file, 15 cents per folio; certifying same, 50 cents; examination of companies, actual expenses incurred; publication of condensed statement, $12; publication of compliance, $4.

Policy Conditions.—All companies, corporations, societies or associations—except fraternal orders—must have the words "assessment insurance" printed in large, bold type, not less than half an inch high, across the face of every application and policy used in the State.

Penalties.—For neglect to make annual statement within the specified time, license to do business will be revoked; or doing business without a license, or for soliciting business for an unauthorized association, subjects the offender to a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $1000, or imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Taxes.—There is imposed upon each and every insurance company transacting the business of insurance within this State a tax of two and one-half per centum per annum upon the gross premiums received by it for insurance within this State from the beginning until the close of the calendar year ending on the thirty-first day of December. Such tax shall become due and payable from the first day of February to the thirtieth day of March in each year.

Fraternal Orders.—Association must do business on the lodge plan, and file a certified copy of its charter and by-laws; an acceptance of the State constitution; a copy of its annual report of the preceding year; and appoint the Auditor its attorney to accept legal process. Fees for filing preliminary papers, $15; annual statement, $15; acceptance of State constitution, $2.50. Annual reports must be made on or before March 1.

CANADA.

No assessment companies to be hereafter licensed, but licenses in force at time of passing of act may be from time to time renewed.

Life Insurance History

Yearly Business of Active United States Life Insurance Companies for Twenty Years, 1897-1916.

The first State insurance department in the United States was established by act of the Massachusetts Legislature in 1855, and since that time annual reports have been issued by an increasing number of departments, and with growing completeness and fullness of detail, until at the present time nearly every feature of the insurance business is fully reported and brought under review for the enlightenment and benefit of the general insuring public.

There are now about two hundred and fifty active level premium American life insurance companies that are licensed and report to the various insurance departments, the principal items of whose statements are presented in the following pages, thereby saving laborious research through the various volumes of insurance reports. The figures in this department cover the twenty years 1897-1916, inclusive, for all active organizations.

A complete statistical history of all active United States life insurance companies, from the date of organization to the close of 1910, is contained in the work Life Insurance History, 1843-1910, published by The Spectator Company, price $5. A copy of that work, in connection with the annual volume of The Insurance Year Book, will show the entire history of the life insurance business to date.

For lists of officers and directors see pages immediately following this department.

LIFE INSURANCE BY STATES

The following tables show the business transacted in 1916 in the States named by the various life insurance companies. While not attempting to analyze the business in individual States, the tables exhibit the amount of policies written, the premiums and losses of each company, and the amount of insurance in force at the beginning and close of the year. It is simply an exhibit of the volume of business in the various States and Territories, and conveys an approximate idea of the total business. A few States do not supply this information, and in such cases we have applied to the companies for particulars.

The company pays its losses promptly and endeavors to serve the public as efficiently as any similar organization.

At the close of last year the Independent Life reported admitted assets of $452,268, against which there were liabilities of $211,842 (including policy reserves of $204,169), leaving a surplus on policyholders' account of $240,426.

The real estate owned by the company consists of a twelve-story building which has earned between five and six per cent on the amount at which it is valued in the annual statement. At present the building is better filled and earning more than at any previous time.

Special attention is now being paid to the Industrial Department, which is making steady increase from week to week.

Officers of the company are: Paul Roberts, President; M. J. McGuire, Secretary; Oscar Mather, Treasurer; Dr. McGannon, Medical Director; John R. Aust, General Counsel.

STATISTICS OF ASSESSMENT LIFE ASSOCIATIONS.

In the following tables we present the statistics of a large number of assessment associations, both life and accident, and fraternal societies, showing their transactions and financial condition for two years. These figures have been carefully compiled from official reports made to insurance departments, or from reports specially furnished to us for THE YEAR BOOK. The comparative form in which they are presented lends special importance to them:

INSURANCE IN CANADA.

WHAT IS REQUIRED OF COMPANIES DOING BUSINESS IN THE DOMINION.

THE INSURANCE ACT, 1910, was passed during the session of the year 1910 of the Dominion Parliament and became law on May 4, 1910. The Consolidated Act in force up to that time was repealed, with the exception of sections 49, 51, 52 and 71, which remained in force until January 1, 1911, and were repealed on that date.

Under the Insurance Act, 1910, no company or underwriters or other person can do business in the Dominion without obtaining a license from the Minister of Finance. In order to obtain such a license every life company and every fire company must deposit with the Receiver-General the sum of fifty thousand dollars.

It is provided, however, that in case of any such company incorporated elsewhere than within Canada when its liabilities to policyholders in Canada, including the full reserve for reinsurance value of all its Canadian policies, exceed its assets in Canada, then the company will be required to make good the deficit by adding to its deposits with the Receiver-General, or by creating a special trust in the hands of two or more persons resident in Canada or in a Canadian trust company. Hereafter no trustee, except a trust company, shall be approved by the Minister.

Companies doing marine business exclusively are not subject to the act.

Companies other than life, fire or marine, in order to do business in Canada, are required to obtain a license from the Minister of Finance, and the Treasury Board must in each case decide what shall be the amount of deposit.

Every company is required to file in the Department of Insurance, within two months after the 1st day of January in each year, a sworn statement of its condition and affairs as at December 31 of the preceding year.

The policy liabilities of life insurance companies doing business in Canada, under policies issued previous to January 1, 1900, are to be valued according to the British Offices Life Tables, 1893, O. M. (5), at 4 per cent interest, until January 1, 1915; and after January 1, 1915, by the same tables, with interest at 3½ per cent. All policies issued on or after January 1, 1900, are to be valued according to the British Offices Life Tables, 1893, O. M. (5), with interest at 3½ per cent.

Toward defraying the expenses of the Department of Insurance a sum shall be annually contributed by the companies, which sum shall be assessed pro rata upon the gross premiums received by each during the preceding year, such sum to be paid upon the demand of the Superintendent of Insurance.
